The following Extract and Addition, having been miſlaid, has occaſioned the long Delay of their Appearance, which the Gentleman who ſent them is requeſted to excuſe, as the greateſt Reſpect will ever be ſhewn to whatever he ſends for Publication to his humble Servant, The PRINTER.

OSSIANS ADDRESS to the Sun, from Carthon in his Fingal, (a Piece of ancient Scots Poetry, written 1200 Years ago, before the Times of Chriſtianity, lately tranſlated; with an Addition to give it a Chriſtian turn, as the Reſult of all true Philoſophy:

O THOU that rolleſt above, round as the Shield of my Fathers; whence are thy Beams, O Sun? whence thy everlaſting Light?

Thou comeſt forth in thy awful Splendor and Beauty, and the Stars hide themſelves in the Sky: The Moon cold and pale, ſinks in the Weſtern Wave: But thou thyſelf moveſt alone; who can be the Companion of thy Courſe?

The Oaks of the Mountains fall; the Mountains themſelves decay with Years; the Ocean ſhrinks and grows again; the Moon herſelf is loſt in Heaven: But thou forever art the ſame, rejoicing in the brightneſs of thy Courſe.

When the World is dark with Tempeſts; when Thunder rolls, and Lightning flies, thou lookeſt in thy Beauty from the Clouds, and laugheſt at the Storm: But to Oſſian thou lookeſt in vain, he ſhall ſoon behold thy Beams no more; whether thy yellow Hair flows on the Eaſtern Clouds, or thou trembleſt at the Gates of the Weſt.

But thou, perhaps, like me, art only for a Seaſon, and thy Years ſhall have an End: Thou ſhalt ſleep in thy Clouds careleſs of the Voice of the Morning. Exult then in thy Sphere, O Sun; rejoice in the Strength of thy Youth!—Age is dark and unlovely; it is like the glimmering Light of the Moon, when it ſhines thro' broken Clouds, and the Miſt is on the Hills; the Blaſt of the North is on the Plains, and the Traveller ſhrinks in his Journey.

The ADDITION.

I can continue here, then, but a little while; I muſt ſoon put off this earthly Tabernacle.—But it is only this decaying Body that can fade and die.—My Soul, which only is myſelf, ſhall continue to live,—to think and act, and flouriſh in immortal Youth.—It ſhall, (if duly qualified by Grace in Chriſt,) forever dwell in unfading Bliſs, with the great Father of Spirits, who are his whole Family of Heaven and Earth, with whom it ſhall never ceaſe to drink of the River of his Pleaſures.

O thou eternal Being, the ancient of Days, thou haſt always exiſted before all Ages, and thy Years ſhall never have an End—O thou Almighty Being, the great Genius of the World, by whom all Things exiſt, and without whom nothing could ever have been at all: It is on the free Exertion of thy omniſcient Power and Will, that all Things depend, and thou art the great Source of all Being, Perfection and Happineſs.

Thou, like the Sun to this World of Bodies, art the glorious Sun of the World of Spirits, the Light and Life of every created Intelligence;—the Light that can never be extinguiſhed; the Life that can never die.

Thee, O my GOD, I will ever devoutly acknowledge and Love, revere and adore:—To thee will I cheerfully reſign; in thee I can never ceaſe to confide, who art always, and every where preſent, whoſe Goodneſs is boundleſs, whoſe Wiſdom is infinite, and whoſe Power is uncontroulable.

Let my whole Soul be intirely devoted to thee, and freely conformed to thy Purity, Rectitude, Truth and Goodneſs, that I may never ceaſe to be Happy in thee, my God, and in myſelf and others, rejoicing together with them, in the ever flowing Streams of thy inexhauſtible Benevolence.

Quod faſcit DEUS Pater. o. m. idq Mediante ejus Filio Jeſu Chriſto, atq renovante Spiritu ſancto: Cui, JEHOVÆ, Æterno, Uno, Trino, omnis tribuatur Laus, Honos & Gloria, in Secula ſeculorum. AMEN.

LONDON, March 5.

We hear from Aberdeen, that the Merchants there propoſe to inveſt a large ſum of money, to enable them to engage in the new projected trade to the Eaſt-Indies, in common with Liverpool, Glaſgow, &c.

We hear Guy Carleton, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, is appointed Governor of that Province in the room of the Hon. James Murray.

March 5. They write from Corſica, that two Jewiſh Synagogues are now building there.

The P---l---nt of I---l---d, and the M---n---y of En---g---d, have diſappointed each other; it being far from the intention of either, that a late popular bill ſhould have paſſed.

The French have begun to diet their Sailors exactly after the ſame manner as our fleet.

A letter from Whittleſea in the Iſle of Ely, dated Feb 29, gives an account, that a Grocer of that place having often miſſed money and goods, formed a ſcheme for the diſcovery of the thief, which took effect, and a neighbour and intimate friend of his was detected in the fact; upon which the Grocer followed him home, and mildly expoſtulated with him on his offence; and going again afterwards to his houſe, to talk further on the affair, the delinquent was found hanging in a ſhed, quite dead.

A letter from Parma ſays, "The Pope has threatened to ſuſpend and excommunicate the States of our Sovereign; his motives for this ſtep, are, a pretended breach of the Eccleſiaſtical privileges, for that about two years ago, the Duke of Parma deprived the Clergy, within his dominions, of the exorbitant privileges they enjoyed, their eſtates being exempt from all taxes, not only during their poſſeſſing them, but when they were bought, in caſe they thought fit to ſell them. This exceſſive exemption had, in a manner, reduced the revenues of the State to nothing. After many fruitleſs applications to the Court of Rome, that it would pleaſe to conſent to a diminution of thoſe privileges, the Government thought fit, by its ſovereign authority, to ſuppreſs them. The Pope, diſſatisfied with this act, made public Declaration, that purſuant to the Bulls publiſhed by his predeceſſors, the Clergy are not ſubject to any civil power or juriſdiction whatever, and that therefore he, the Pope, looks upon the Duke of Parma, together with all his Miniſters, and all others who have aſſiſted, or joined in the execution of his orders againſt the Eccleſiaſtics, to be juſtly ſubject to be excommunicated."

They write from Warſaw, that the Marſhal of the Confederacy of Grodno is retired to Rome, where he has taken the habit of a Monk, and is actually preaching to the people on the affairs of Poland, exhorting them to undertake a Cruiſade in defence of the Catholic Religion in that kingdom.

March 12. We are told by letters from Rome, that had it not been for the intervention of Cardinal Albani, the Pope would have been lately irreconcileably embroiled with the Duke of Modena. That That Prince, it ſeems, had preſented a petition to the Pontiff for obtaining a tax upon the Eccleſiaſticks, and a reform of certain ſmall convents, in his dominions: but the Court of Rome thought the requeſt improper, and did not vouchſafe to give the Duke an anſwer. Upon this, the Miniſter of Modena ſoon received orders to retire from Rome; and things were running to great extremity, when Cardinal Albani, whoſe candour and moderation are well known, interpoſed his good offices, and engaged the Pope to conſent to the Duke of Modena's demands.

The Pope's brief againſt the decrees of the Duke of Parma having been announced to the Parliament of Paris, that Court, all the chambers aſſembled, reſolved that the ſaid brief was illegal and derogatory to the authority of Sovereign Powers, and therefore ought to be ſuppreſſed.

NEW-YORK, May 19.

On Tueſday was held a Commencement at King's College, in this City, when ſeveral Gentlemen took their Degrees of Bachelors and Maſters of Arts, and Doctors of Phyſick,—but we have had no Account of Particulars.

On Wedneſday laſt, the Annual Convention of the Epiſcopalian Miniſters of this Province, Connecticut and New-Jerſey, was held in this City, on which occaſion, a Sermon was preached, by the Rev. Dr. Cooper, Preſident of King's College, on the former Part of the firſt Verſe of the 28th Ch. of Exodus.—A larger Number of Miniſters were preſent, than ever aſſembled before upon the like Occaſion.

Arrived. At Briſtol: Juno, Freeman, from South-Carolina. Olive Branch, Tingley, from New-York. At Liverpool. Conway, Richards; from New-York. At Liſbon: Charming Molly, Blancay: Betſey, Roſs; Sally Granby; from New-England; Oſwego, Hamilton, from New-York: Britannia, White; Nancy Keene; Sally and Polly, Sutton; Batchelors, Buckley, from Philadelphia.

[☞ The ſeveral Pieces from our Correſpondents will be taken Notice of in our next.]

BOSTON, May 9.

We hear from Georgia, that the two Houſes of Aſſembly there have, after ſome conteſt, agreed in appointing Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; to be Agent for that Province in the Room of Charles Garth, Eſq;—It is ſaid the Parliament has under Conſideration the taking away the Civil Eſtabliſhment, or the Sum granted annually by them, for the ſaid Province.

We hear from Newport, Rhode-Iſland, that laſt Tueſday Night, one of the Midſhipmen and two other petty Officers belonging to the Senegal Sloop of War lying in that Harbour, being at a Houſe of ill Fame there, a Quarrel aroſe between them and a Dutch Shoemaker and a Sailor, and the Midſhipman having had part of his Noſe cut off, he with his Companions went to a Doctor's to have it ſewed on, but that on their return they were again met by the ſame Perſons, and another Fray happened between them in the Street, when the Officers drew their Hangers and ſtabb'd both the Sailor and Dutchman in the Body, the former expired ſoon after, and the latter is ſo dangerouſly wounded that 'tis ſaid he cannot recover: The Officers immediately took Refuge on board the Man of War, but Complaint being made next Day to the Captain, they were delivered up to the Civil Authority, and after Examination, were committed to Gaol, in Order for Trial.

We hear that Samuel Robinſon, Eſq; died lately in London, of the ſmall-pox: He was a Captain in the provincial ſervice, at the battle of Lake-George, in the year 1758, and in the ſeveral expeditions to the weſtward. He formerly lived at Hardwick, but after the war was over, he ſettled in one of the new plantations patented by the government of New-Hampſhire, which were afterwards confirmed to New-York; and he was employed as an agent, to obtain redreſs of ſome grievances the patentees labour under, ſince their ſettlement.

The late Speaker of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, has received a very genteel letter from the Speaker of the Houſe of Burgeſſes in Virginia, in anſwer to the circular letter of the Houſe, written in the laſt ſeſſion of our General Aſſembly, which got to Williamſburg in good Time, as their Aſſembly was to ſit in a few days. Their principles of liberty, it is ſaid, are ſo well eſtabliſhed, and the tendency of the late acts of Parliament, impoſing duties and taxes on the Colonies, are ſo manifeſt, as to leave no doubt but they will approve of the meaſures taken, and readily concur in the plan propoſed for the ſupport of their conſtitutional rights. Their noble, timely, and ſpirited reſolutions, in the year 1765, ſo ſatisfactory to the people in America, afford abundant reaſon for us ever to reſpect that province, and to ſpeak of them in the ſame terms in which the honourable gentleman is pleaſed politely to mention this, "as very vigilant and ſteadfaſt guardians of American rights."

By a veſſel arrived at Ipſwich, we hear from Montſerrat, that a number of Negroes are in gaol there, on account of the inſurrection, and that there are upwards of 1500 of them collected together in the mountains. It was diſcovered by a Mulattoe girl. The ſignal for the Negroes to aſſemble, and begin the maſſacre, was, a fire to be lighted at each end of the town. The diſcovery was not made till after the fires were lighted.

May 12. We learn by letters from Capt. Jarvis. That the latter End of February, a Bill was brought into Parliament to continue the Bounty on Greenland Ships to the Year 1770, when the Act, favourable to the American Fiſhery, expires: The Bill was ſupported by Adminiſtration. The M-n-ſtry declared their Idea, to be, that both Acts might expire together, when they could take the Matter up in the whole and give that Preference to the Britiſh Ships, as would weaken and leſſen the American Fiſhery.———Mr. Gr—v—le ſaid that he intended to have thrown that whole Branch of Buſineſs into the Hands of the Americans, conſidering them as better ſituated for it than Great-Britain, conſidering them too, as part of the Britiſh Empire, and as ſuch, ſubject to the Supreme Legiſlative Controul of parliament; but ſince the Americans had denied this ſupreme Power,——— ſince they held Opinions the moſt dangerous, the moſt traiterous to this Country.——Since even ſome in England had doubted the Supreme Power of Parliament over them——he had changed his Views, and thought every encouragement every Preference ought to be given to the Britiſh Ships: ——he alſo declared in the Houſe, that the Americans had no right at all,—none, to the Fiſhery, it was conquered by our Arms or protected by our Power, and that all the Privilege of Fiſhing which America had, was by the Favour, Indulgence and Kindneſs of Great-Britain: When Mr. G—v—lle mentioned the Fiſhery he extended it to all the Fiſheries; and it is ſaid, that it has been in contemplation, to lay an heavy Duty upon every fiſhing Veſſel belonging to the Province.

The Rev'd Mr. Wheeler, who has been Home for Epiſcopal Ordination, as a Miſſionary for George Town, at the Eaſtward, came Paſſenger tlemen.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Smith in 9 Weeks from Glaſgow, with a Number of Paſſengers.

Raynham, April 28 1768. On the 26th Inſtant, a young Girl, about three Years and ſix Months old, Daughter of Mr. Abiel Smith, in going to Mr. Elijah Codding's School, at this Place, took a wrong Path and was loſt; in the Evening the Child was miſs'd, and the Neighbourhood alarmed, who made diligent Search for it the whole Night, but to no Purpoſe; the next day the Number of People increaſed to upwards of an Hundred, who rambled every Way with ſorrowful Countenances, condoling the Caſe of the bereaved Parents, whoſe Hearts were almoſt broke with Grief, having not ſeen or heard of their Child for the Space of Twenty-three Hours: But happily at a Quarter after Nine o'Clock, the Child was found in a ſwampy Place, with her Mouth juſt above the Water, where 'tis judged ſhe had lain Twenty Hours, and ſcarcely any Life diſcernable; a Phyſician, Doctor Giles Church, was immediately ſent for, who afforded ſuch Aſſiſtance, that through the Divine Goodneſs ſhe revived ſo as to ſpeak in Three Hours, and is now in a hopeful Way of Recovery.

NEWPORT, May 9.

Laſt Tueſday Night, between 11 and 12 o'Clock, as Mr. Henry Sparker, Shoe-Maker, of this Town, and Mr. Philip Dexter, of Providence, being in Company with ſome of the People belonging to his Majeſty's Sloop Senegal, now in this Harbour, commanded by Capt. Cookſon; a Difference happened between them, which ended in a tragical Manner: Sparker being run almoſt thro' the Body, with a Sword, as 'tis ſuppoſed; by which he died in about an Hour after; and Dexter received a Stab in his right Side, and had his Head very much cut and mangled, by which his Life is ſtill in Danger. The Senegal's Men concern'd in this unhappy Affair are Mr. Robert Young, Mate, Mr. Thomas Careleſs, and Mr. Charles John Marſhall, Midſhipmen; who are now confined in his Majeſty's Jail in this Town, and are to have their Trial on the firſt Monday in June next. As yet it ſeems to be a little uncertain who were the Aggreſſors in this melancholy Event, the Particulars muſt be deferred till after the Trial.

NEW-LONDON, May 6.

On Wedneſday arrived in this Town, from his Seat at Johnſon-Hall, Sir William Johnſon, Bart. (a Gentleman well known for the great and important Services rendered to his King and Country)—in order to enjoy the Benefit of the Sea Air, and have ſome Relaxation from Indian Affairs, the extreme cloſe Application to which, for many Years, and eſpecially the laſt Winter, has much impair'd his Health.

NEW-HAVEN, May 13.

Laſt Wedneſday, Capt. Joſeph Trowbridge arrived here in 20 days from Montſerrat, he informs, that the court was ſitting there daily, for the Trial of the rebellious Negroes, ſeveral of whom were condemn'd and executed,—that great rewards were offered for apprehending ſix of the ringleaders, who had fled to the mountains, where it was ſaid they had concealed a great number of fire-arms, &c. but that the moſt excruciating pain of the rack could not extort from thoſe who had been executed, a confeſſion where their Magazine was.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.

Extract of a Letter from London, Feb. 13, 1768.

"The Adminiſtration is now likely to remain ſettled for ſome conſiderable Time.—The Duke of Grafton is the Cement of the whole; and tho' he hath neither many Family Connections nor what is ſtill more neceſſary to one in his Station, many parliamentary Ones, he poſſeſſes much of the public Eſteem and Confidence; and all acquieſce in his continuing to take the Lead, which is ſomewhat ſingular, as he is yet a very young Man.

"Immenſe Sums are daily given to ſecure Seats in Parliament, and it is reckoned, that no fewer than 30 or 40 Nabobs will get into the Houſe this enſuing Election—Men who, in the Eaſt, by Rapine and Plunder, in moſt Caſes attended with the moſt ſhocking Inſtances of Barbarity, have ſuddenly acquired immenſe Wealth. Such you will, perhaps, think not the moſt proper Guardians of our Conſtitution and Liberties.

"The Bill for continuing the Reſtraint of Eaſt-India Dividends to 10 per Ct. for one Year longer, is now paſt both Houſes, tho' not without Oppoſition. Mr. D--d-ſw--l, in the Commons, propoſed, with a View to protract the Matter, to refer the Examination of the Company's Affairs to a ſelect Committee; but Lord N---th ſhewed ſo clearly the Expediency of the Bill, and the Abſurdity of appealing to a Committee, in a Point wherein the Houſe itſelf had already decided, that the Motion was dropt without a Diviſion. Indeed every diſintereſted honeſt Man muſt ſee the Propriety of this Reſtraint; eſpecially thoſe who know and conſider the precarious Tenure upon which they hold their territorial Revenues, which are collected by a Me-and in which Service our Army there are employed in the Field near nine Months in the Year. Add to this, the Difficulty of inveſting theſe Revenues (for they cannot be remitted in Specie) and of converting their Commodities into Money, when the European Markets are ſo glutted.—Lord Clive hath of late been extremely ill, and ſet out about three Weeks ago for Nice, as the only Chance he has of prolonging his Life.

" Laſt Monday I heard Lord North open the Budget, which he did to the general Satisfaction. It is needleſs to give the Particulars; but there is to be no new Taxes this Year. We leſſen the National Debt a Trifle, and borrow, by a Loan, and a Lottery, £. 1,900,000, at three per Cent. to pay off the Remainder of the unfunded four per Cent. He aſſured us that we were, in general, in a very proſperous Condition; that the preſent Peace was like to be laſting; but that if, contrary to all Expectation, a freſh War ſhould break out, Care ſhould be taken to put the State in the beſt Condition poſſible, to exert ourſelves with Glory in the Proſecution of it. Mr. Grenville, as uſual, endeavoured to find Fault, but to no Purpoſe. His Speech was unanimated and confuſed, and was plainly dictated by Diſcontent and Diſappointment, tho' he affected to ſay, he reckoned it an Honour to be out of Place. An Honour, however, I dare ſay, he would with very ſoon to be ſtript of. In all his Speeches, he never fails to bring in North-America.—In this he obſerved, that after all the Expence we had incurred during the late War, in ridding them of their Enemies the French, the Protection of the Conquets we had made there, coſt us annually £. 500,000, a Sum which, in our exhauſted State, with ſuch a Load of Debt, we were, by no Means, able to bear.

" I ſee the Commotions in Boſton, and other Places, are not yet wholly ſubſided; and that ſome over zealous Patriots endeavour to keep up the Ball of Contention, by prompting the People to make public Reſolutions againſt wearing our more expenſive Manufactures; Reſolutions in themſelves not blameable, nor of real Importance to the Mother Country, if they are not in a Situation to pay for them. But why all this Buſtle about it, juſt at this Juncture, and juſt after the total Repeal of the Stamp-Act? I will freely give you my Opinion; which is, that nothing is to be apprehended from all this; for that the growing State of the Colonies, both as to Numbers of People, and the Extent of their Settlements, will afford an ample Field for the Conſumption of all the Manufactures we can ſpare them (let them encourage Manufactures among themſelves as much as they pleaſe) for a long Period to come. And as to their Allegiance, which ſome are apprehenſive about here, that is ſecured by their natural Connection with, and ſtrong Attachment to this Country, as well as by their Want of our Protection, without which they are not in a Condition to defend themſelves againſt their and our common Enemies.—Am I, or am I not miſtaken?"

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to another in this City, dated Feb. 25, 1768.

"You will doubtleſs be informed, long before the Receipt of this, of Lord Hillſborough being appointed Secretary of State for America. The Office is not likely to continue long, and (from the preſent Appearance) will be of little Uſe to Great-Britain or the Colonies. Several of the principal Merchants trading to Philadelphia, waited upon him a few Days ago, in order to try, if poſſible, to obtain his Influence for a Paper Currency. He has expreſſed his Sentiments poſitively againſt it; nevertheleſs a larger Number intend waiting on him ſhortly, to ſee what they can do; though they have little Proſpect of ſucceeding."

Extempore on a Pipe of TOBACCO.

THRO' worthleſs tube of brittle clay,
Will I ſome ſerious thoughts convey;
My native frailty here I trace,
A perfect type of humane race:
Exotick is the noiſome plant,
Exotick all, for which I pant;
With ſick'ning fumes the air I choak,
What's wordly grandeur but a ſmoak?
The quick'ning whiffs declare the ſtrife
Of thoſe, who gaſp for parting life;
The heap of duſt that's left behind,
Diſplays the fate of all mankind. D. L.

THE CONTRAST.

WHEN Heav'ns imperial beauties ſtood
Reveal'd to Paris' eyes;
Their charms in deep ſuſpenſe he view'd,
Still doubting whoſe the prize.
Thus, loſt in beauty's maze, I trace,
Mild Laura's ſober mien;
When gay Belinda's ſprightly grace
Adorns the rival ſcene.
Enthron'd in Laura's penſive brow
A Pallas we ſurvey:
In Bella's cheek the Cupids glow,
The ſmiles of Venus play.
In manners grave, and temper ſweet,
See! Laura how ſerene!
Each look, each geſture how diſcreet!
How pure each thought within!
Lo! Bella cheerful, airy, ſmart,
In native humour gay!
Each ſmile, the emblem of her heart,
Bright as the god of day.
Laura's reſerve and decency
Our reaſon bids approve:
Belinda's ſweet vivacity
Inſpires the warmth of love.
My friendſhip then, my beſt eſteem,
To Laura I reſign:
And Bell,—thou dear enchanting whim!
My raviſh'd heart be thine.

WARSAW, February 10.

IT is ſaid that the Diet hath ſeveral points to diſcuſs relative to Religion. It is even pretended that it will not be inſiſted upon for the future that the King, who is elected in a free Aſſembly, ſhould be of the Roman Catholick Religion. The return of a Courier ſent to a certain Power will clear up this report.

Florence, Jan. 30. The Grand Duke hath ordered that an exact ſtate of the Monaſteries of Tuſcany, and an account of the revenues which the regular and ſecular Eccleſiaſtics enjoy, ſhall be preſented to him.

Stockholm, Feb. 5. We have received advice, that the Sieur Julenſchol, Intendant of the Court, and Receiver of the rents of Uſpal, is become a Bankrupt for nine or ten tons of gold.

Hanover, Feb. 15. It is reported that Prince Charles of Mecklenbourg-Strelitz, the next brother of the Reigning Duke, is going to marry the Princeſs Auguſta of Saxe-Gotha.

Paris, Feb. 9. It is reported that the Pope has excommunicated one of the Italian Princes.

LONDON,

Feb. 29. The votive ſhield of Camillus, which the learned Dr. Woodward bought for four pounds, ſold this week for four hundred.

Yeſterday eight Deacons and four Prieſts were ordained by the Biſhop of London, at the Chapel Royal, St. James's, ſeveral of whom are to go abroad to preach the Goſpel in foreign parts.

They write from Mobille in Weſt-Florida, that the Spaniſh Governor of New-Orleans had received orders from court to ſend home an exact liſt of all the French on the iſland; and it was reported that the whole of that nation would ſoon be obliged to evacuate the place.

Extract of a letter from New-York, March 10.

"There are now four brigs from 40 to 70 tons, and 15 armed deck-cutters on the Lake Ontario; by means of theſe the navigation of the great Lakes, and a new trade, will ſoon be eſtabliſhed equal almoſt to that we now enjoy from ſeveral of the Britiſh iſlands."

We hear from Guernſey, that the French are making extraordinary preparations in all their ports, to fit out a large number of ſhips for the Newfoundland fiſhery.

Within a fortnight ſuch a great number of foreign veſſels have arrived in the River, laden with corn, that they cannot find granaries to ſtow them in.

We hear from Edinburgh, that the advance upon grain in Scotland ſince the year 1748, according to an accurate calculation, had been found to exceed 800,000l. per annum; and moſt kinds of proviſions in proportion.

By accounts received by private letters from France, we are informed, that in conſequence of the moſt ſtrict orders from his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, no perſons (of what nation or condition ſoever they may be) are now ſuffered to depart from that kingdom without a ſpecial leave or paſs, and likewiſe undergoing the moſt ſtrict and critical examination, owing, it is ſaid, to ſeveral murders and great robberies lately committed there, on perſons of high rank and fortune: One Nobleman is reported to have been robbed of money, plate, jewels, &c. to the value of upwards of a million of livres.

March 4. A letter from Paris, dated Feb. 19, ſays, "It is aſſured that the Count de St. Germain quitted the Service of the Court of Denmark for no other reaſon, but becauſe he found that his Daniſh Majeſty had entered into a Treaty with the Czarina and the King of Pruſſia; declaring that he could not, on any occaſion, bear arms againſt France, his native country; in conſequence of which laudable reſolution, the King of Denmark not only permitted him to reſign, but granted him a penſion of 60,00 livres, as a teſtimony of his ſatisfaction."

It is thought by ſome, the Parliament will meet early in the month of May next for the diſpatch of buſineſs, and continue ſitting for near three months before any prorogation takes place.

It is the opinion of the Hibernian Connoiſſeurs in general, that the enſuing General Election in Ireland will cauſe upwards of 300,000 l. to be circulated among the electors and poor of that kingdom next ſummer.

It is confidently given out, at the weſt end of the town, that one of the terms of the family and political reconciliation, which has lately taken place between two perſons, is a mutual engagement, that they ſhall both uſe their intereſt and utmoſt endeavours to procure an Act of Indemnity for a certain celebrated Exile.

Wedneſday a live turtle, lately brought from the Weſt Indies, of three hundred and ſeventy odd pounds, was bought at half a guinea per pound, to be ſent into the country for an Election feaſt.

On Monday a Lady of Quality depoſited in the hands of an eminent Merchant the ſum of 1000l. for purchaſing of the perpetual Avowſon of Aldwinckle, to deliver Mr. Kimpton and his family out of their preſent difficulties.

Yeſterday Elizabeth Sharp, a girl about 18, was brought before the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, and committed to Bridewell. His Lordſhip had taken a great deal of pains about this unhappy girl, having written to her father, in Northamptonſhire, and received a very tender letter, that he ſhould be glad to receive her; but ſhe abſolutely refuſed the offer, and choſe rather to be ſent to Bridewell.

By the ſudden overflow of the river Ribbe, near Preſton, Lancaſhire, one man caught eight or nine large ſalmon, left in the hedges by the ſudden fall of the water, and ſold them for a penny a pound.

Extract of a letter from Flintſhire, Feb. 17.

"On Tueſday night laſt, as David ap Rice, and Lewis Jones, in company with three young women, on a party of pleaſure, were returning home, they loſt their way in the ſnow, and wandered for near three hours, in order to diſcover the path, when the women ſunk down with fatigue, on which the young men ſet out in ſearch of aſſiſtance, and reached the houſe of Mr. Hugh Williams, where they got lights, and returning back, found one of the young women dead, and the other two near expiring, by the ſeverity of the weather; one of them died the next day, but the other recovered; the two deceaſed were interred in one grave on Monday laſt, being the day they were to have been marred to the abovementioned young men."

March 10. We are informed from Rome, that a proteſt has been remitted to the Apoſtolic-Chamber againſt the reſolutions taken in the Dyet of Warſaw, the preamble of which runs thus: 'The Sieur Charles Lattawor Cherptowatz, Marſhal of the Confederacy, and Nuncio at the Dyet for the Grand Dutchy of Lithuania, preferring Liberty to all temporal advantages, and the Catholic Faith even to Liberty itſelf, proteſts againſt the Prince de Repnin, Ambaſſador from the Court of Ruſſia, and declares ſolemnly before God, before all the world, and the kingdom of Poland in particular, before King Staniſlaus his Sovereign, and the other Kings and Princes, particularly the Empreſs of Ruſſia, that that Prince having aſſembled in the kingdom of Poland a great number of Ruſſian troops, againſt the intention of the Empreſs his Sovereign, has abuſed the power entruſted to him, to the prejudice of the honour of her Imperial Majeſty, in order to oppreſs the orthodox Catholic faith, and to deſtroy and overthrow the laws, rights, prerogatives and liberties of that kingdom, &c."

In the Paris Gazette of Monday laſt, received with yeſterday's mail, there is no mention made of any extraordinary event having happened, either in that city or neighbourhood; but one of the foreign Gazettes has the following article, dated Paris, Feb. 29: "A few days ago notice was given at the Poſt-office, and at the places where publick carriages are hired, that no perſon is to leave this city, unleſs he firſt obtains a paſſport from the Miniſtry, or Government, if he be a native of France; or if a foreigner, a paſſport from the Miniſter of his own nation, reſiding here. This order is intended to preſerve exactneſs in the police regiſters, and to ſhew who are the perſons that leave the capital."

Yeſterday the Parliament was diſſolved by proclamation, and this day the writs were ſent to all the returning-officers for the counties, cities, and boroughs throughout the kingdom, for electing a new Parliament.

The conteſt is ſo very ſtrong and violent in the boroughs of Lancaſter and Northampton, the city of Carliſle, and the county of Cumberland, that it is thought even the loſing candidates will ſtand at not leſs than 18,000 l. each.

So ſmall a progreſs has bribery and corruption made in this virtuous and diſintereſted age, that we have it affirmed to us, as a notorious fact, that in a corporation not quite an hundred miles from Northampton, the purchaſe of a vote has not quite ariſen to one hundred pounds.

'Tis ſaid that a Diſſenting Clergymen of great eminence, intends conforming ſpeedily to the eſtabliſhed church of the kingdom.

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, Feb. 12.

"Bankruptcies become daily more frequent in this kingdom. There has juſt happened ſuch an one as we never before had an example of, viz. that of an entire city (Nicarleby in Finland) the magiſtrates of which, and all the inhabitants, excepting a ſingle merchant named Regratier, have declared themſelves inſolvent to the Parliament of Abo. Three-fourths of the inhabitants of the town of Vaſa are alſo reduced to the ſame extremity."

We are told, by ſome late advices from Paris, that Price, the famous horſeman, performs thrice a day to numerous ſpectators, at 2 s. 6d. each, and has cleared, at leaſt, upwards 1000l.

Worceſter, Feb. 25. On Monday laſt, at Shipſton upon Stower, an inquiſition was taken, before Harry Long, Gent. one of the Coroners of this county, on a Farmer there, who dropt down in the field. On Friday laſt he buried his wife, to whom he had been married many years; he told the people who attended at her funeral, that he wiſhed he might not long ſurvive her; that, about 9 o'clock on the morrow morning, he went into the field to the people who were at plow, and ſeemed well, but, while he was talking with them, he dropt down and died in a moment. On the 7th of Auguſt laſt, his brother, at Shipſton, dropt down dead; and it is aſſerted, that his father and his other brother, a few years ago, died in the ſame ſudden manner.

LIST of HORSES entered at GUILDHALL, to run for the Four CITY PLATES.

1. JOHN BULL's horſe, HEART OF OAK. He was got by Juniper out of Tipſey's dam. This is a very fine horſe, and well-known on the turf; he has won one or two plates, but is very ſhy of a poſt; and notwithſtanding the jockies have done all they could to break him of this trick, they have never been able to ſucceed. Odds four to one on him againſt the field. (Sir Robert Ladbroke.*)

2. Mr GRENVILLE's young horſe STAMP. This horſe came in ſecond laſt year; but has ſince run againſt a Poſt, and it is believed is ſo much off his ſpeed by this accident, that if he ſaves his diſtance it will be as much as he will be able to do. (Mr. Harley, Lord Mayor.*)

3. Lord ROCKINGHAM's MERCATOR. This horſe, tho' aged, is a maiden one, having never ſtarted for a plate; he bears training exceeding well, and comes through his exerciſe much to the ſatisfaction of thoſe who have ſeen him. He was got by the famous horſe Commerce, well-known for having won a great number of plates, but by unſkilful Jockies is now ſcarce able to ſtand on his legs. This horſe is in high favour with the gentlemen of the turf: odds on him two to one againſt Prerogative, three to one againſt Pickle, five to one againſt Shaver, and even money that he wins. (Mr. Trecothwick.)

4. Lord CHATHAM's brown horſe PREROGATIVE, got by a grandſon of Nol's Old Trumpeter, his dam by Changeling; he was bred in Jamaica, where he was uſed as a ſtallion to the African fillies; upon his arrival here he was taken into training; has won a plate or two, but not without much jockeyſhip: he is naturally very vicious, and much addicted to the reſt; but his Lordſhip's rough riders, by exerciſe and ſweating, have brought him to be gentle and tractable; he has been lately uſed as a Tryal Horſe, and ſo hard worked, that he is much hurt in his wind. It is imagined he will be beat eaſy, after which he will be of no uſe but as a Teazer. Odds ſix to one againſt his winning. Alderman Beckford.*)

5. Lord BUTE's grey horſe PICKLE, got by Girkin, his dam by Muſhroom; this horſe won with great difficulty one of the laſt plates, and has ſince been ſtraying about in the Ring's Foreſts, and nobody thought him worth catching; at laſt one of his Lordſhip's grooms picked him up, and he has been rid by the ſervants ever ſince, makes an excellent portmanteau horſe, and is ſo gentle that a child may ride him even in the moſt dirty roads; he is ſtill in ſome favour among the ſtable boys, between whom ſeveral bets of ſtrong beer are depending, but the gentlemen of the turf offer ſix to one againſt his winning, but nobody thinks proper to take it. (Sir Richard Glyn *)

6. Lord HOLLAND's old horſe SHAVER, got by craft. This horſe won a plate at Ludgarſhall, but his Lordſhip having found ways and means to purchaſe him, and his grooms having rode him very hard, it is believed he is foundered, and the odds are five to one that he will be diſtanced. Deputy Paterſon.)

It is ſaid the famous horſe LIBERTY, formerly belonging to Lord Chatham who has ſince ſold him, will enter at the poſt; if ſo, and he has a ſkilful rider, 'tis imagined he will come in firſt, but he is very apt to run out of the courſe, and is ſo headſtrong, that it is almoſt impoſſible to guide him. (John Wilkes, Eſq.)

* N. B. Sir Robert Ladbroke, Sir Richard Glyn, and Alderman Beckford, have each repreſented the City of London in two Parliaments, and the Hon. Mr. Harley, (the preſent Lord Mayor, and Brother to the Earl of Oxford) in the laſt.

ONC in ſeven years a famous houſe is clean,
Until thro' toil freſh company convene,
Another heap of dirt then ſoon appears,
And ſo abides another round of years;
This houſe much cleaner would be always kept,
If it was order'd oft'ner to be ſwept.
O for the arm of HERCULES! thy ſtream,
When ſwell'd unto a mighty torrent, Thame,
Should in due ſeaſon my great ſtrength obey,
And waſh the hated filth into the ſea. T. L.

Mr. WILKES's ADDRESS.

To the Worthy Liverymen of the City of LONDON.

Gentlemen, and Fellow Citizens,

IN Deference to the opinion of ſome very reſpectable friends, I preſume to offer myſelf a candidate for my native city of London, at the enſuing general election. The approbation you have been pleaſed, on ſeveral occaſions, to expreſs of my conduct, induces me to hope that the addreſs I have now the honour of making to you will not be unfavourably received.

The chief merit with you, gentlemen, I know to be a ſacred love of liberty, and of thoſe generous principles, which at firſt gave, and have ſince ſecured to this nation, the great charter of freedom. I will yield to none of my countrymen in this noble zeal, which have always characterized Engliſhmen. I may appeal to my whole Conduct, both in and out of Parliament, for the Demonſtration that ſuch Principles are deeply rooted in my Heart, and that I have ſteadily purſued the Intereſts of my Country, without regard to the powerful Enemies I created, or the manifeſt Dangers in which I muſt thence neceſſarily be involved, and that I have fulfilled the Duties of a good Subject.

The two important Queſtions of Public Liberty, reſpecting General Warrants and the Seizure of Papers, may perhaps place me among thoſe who have deſerved well of mankind, by an undaunted Firmneſs, Perſeverance and Probity. Theſe are the Virtues, which your Anceſtors never failed to exert in the ſame national Cauſe of Liberty, and the World will ſee renewed in their Deſcendants on every great Call of Freedom and our Country.

The Nature and Dignity of the Truſt, Gentlemen, which I now ſolicit, ſtrike me very forcibly. I feel the warmeſt Zeal for your Intereſts, and Affection for your Service. I am conſcious how unequal my Abilities are, yet Fidelity and Integrity ſhall in ſome Meaſure compenſate that Deficiency, and I will endeavour through Life, to merit the Continuance of your Approbation, the moſt precious Reward to which I aſpire. If I am honoured with ſo near a relation to you, it will be my Ambition to be uſeful, to dedicate myſelf to your Service, and to diſcharge with Spirit and Aſſiduity, the various and important Duties of the diſtinguiſhed Station in which I may be placed, by the Favour of you, Gentlemen, the Livery of London.

I am, with the utmoſt Reſpect,
Gentlemen, your moſt faithful,
London, And obedient humble Servant,
March 10, 1768. JOHN WILKES.

☞ It has long been agreed, that public vendues, ſubject to no regulation, are very detrimental to the community, by giving room for the moſt unfair practices in trade, and that there is no legal way of ſuppreſſing them, but by underſelling them; with this view the proprietor of this ſtore (having the uſe of a ſufficient fund in England, to buy moſt of his goods with ready money) is determined to ſell only for caſh, at a low advance, that he may thereby be enabled to ſell better and cheaper commodities, that can generally be had at vendue. (21 24)

To the PUBLICK,
PETER VIANEY,

Muſic, Fencing, and Dancing-Maſter:

WHO keeps a private and public ſchool oppoſite to the Hon. John Watts's, at Mrs. Hayes's, near the exchange, having heard that a report has been ſpread, that he aſks two guineas a quarter, and two guineas entrance, for teaching young ladies and gentlemen to dance, finds it neceſſary to contradict publickly a report certainly publiſh'd to prevent him from getting ſcholars.—His demand was no more than one guinea a quarter and a guinea entrance, however at the deſire of ſome gentlemen and ladies, he will for the future teach at a piſtole a quarter, and a piſtole entrance, and will wait on any ladies or gentlemen that chooſe to be taught, at their own houſes.——He will teach French country dances, either at home or abroad.
